'Rylstone' is a spacious detached house situated at the edge of the village, in a quiet and peaceful location overlooking open countryside. It has been considerably extended to make it into a comfortable family home, with a conservatory and pleasant garden.

The guest accommodation consists of 3 rooms. One double and one twin room with en-suite. One double with hand basin and private bathroom. The internet is available in all rooms.

There is ample, off road, parking space.

All rooms have tea and coffee making facilities, hair dryer and colour TV.

Breakfast is served in the conservatory overlooking the garden.

'Rylstone' is non-smoking throughout.

We are open most of the year.

We welcome children but not pets.

Rocklands is a small village and an ideal starting point for exploring the area.

The cathedral city of Norwich is 25 min, and historic Wymondham and Hingham are each 15 min away. Attleborough and Watton are 4 to 5 miles away.

We are centrally located within the county making it easy to reach many places of interest - the Broads, north and east coasts, National Trust properties, gardens and nurseries, nature reserves and zoo.

We are 4 miles from Peter Beales Roses (Attleborough) and 6 miles from Snetterton Circuit.

For evening meals, there are several good pubs nearby. We recommend :-

The Waggon & Horses in Griston is just under 4 miles (01953 883847) and The Gamekeeper at Old Buckenham is 8 miles (01953 860397). In Attleborough (4 miles) there are fish and chip shops, Indian restaurants and other take away establishments. The Stag / Breckland Lodge has a Carvery.

For something really special try The White Hart at Hingham - newly refurbished by TV chef Chris Coubrough
